London is the equivalent of 'the American dream' meaning the city I would rather be in Europe is London

Do you like London? Why?

I love London because it is the place of possibilities and opportunities. London is the equivalent of "the American dream", meaning the city I would rather be in Europe is London. It is a versatile, diverse city in terms of cultures, and people are easily accepted. I just don't like the gun crime issue and the Brexit decision.

Tell me more about you, your job your lifestyle.

I am a TV presenter and journalist working for BBC. I work within the BBC Africa department and present a weekly news programme for teens in Francophone Africa. Therefore, I present in French. I am an independent, single mum with a five-year-old son. I adore him and enjoy being a mum every day. I do have hobbies such as fitness and travelling. I work out often and love travelling country to country, especially across Africa. I love networking and meeting new faces and experiencing new cultures.

How would you describe your style?

My style is very trendy, sexy but classy. I follow fashion closely, from hairstyle to the shoes that I wear. I have different hairstyles every month, I like to dress according to the trend but I never forget to be true to my age, if you know what I mean.

What is your favourite colour and why?

Orange, mustard kind of, because it represents brightness and light like sunshine. It is a colour of positive energy, and I think I am all that.
